

NORTHFIELD MOUNTAIN

We were really cold but we learned a lot about trees on our trip to Northfield Mountain. We played relay games and explored the forest lawn. We were able to bore down into the soil, with augers, and see layers that were hundreds of years old.

Thank you to all the parents who drove and who were there to warm cold feet! Ask your children what their favorite game was!